It is anticipated the programme of training, quality assurance and support will help us think constructively and creatively about how best we can:

- Implement safeguarding policy and practice in our churches
- Problem solve where we encounter difficulties
- Support the churches with safeguarding incidents that occur

Training

Jenny's training role will focus on:

- Ensuring that each circuit has sufficient Foundation Module Trainers available to facilitate the timely delivery of safeguarding training
- Identifying with superintendents and circuit safeguarding officers urgent training needs including for "train the trainer" sessions
- Working with circuits to support the delivery of safeguarding training

District Safeguarding Team

The Northampton District Safeguarding Team Resource

The full-time post will be occupied by 3 people:

Gill Crippen

Sue Ioannou

Jenny Brooks

All safeguarding concerns should be reported by email to the team on the new referral form which can be found on the District website:

www.northamptonmethodistdistrict.org.uk

safeguarding@northampton

Quality Assurance

As part of Sue's quality assurance role, it is our aim to:

- Work with a small number of larger churches, undertaking safeguarding reviews as a joint exercise with superintendents, ministers, and circuit and church safeguarding officers
- Help identify effective practice where churches are working well in implementing the safeguarding policy
- Share good practice, learning and ideas across the District
- Support churches managing the safeguarding agenda
