Lay Worker at High Street Methodist Church, Maidenhead

The Thames Valley Circuit is seeking a lay worker for High Street Methodist Church, Maidenhead on a 2- year fixed term contract of 30 hours (10 3-hour sessions) per week at a salary of £21,000 p.a. with some evening and weekend work. There may be assistance available with housing.

High St Maidenhead is a town-centre church with a membership of 149, a range of midweek activities and one main Sunday service. We are seeking a self-motivated leader to foster relationships between the congregation and affiliated groups (such as uniformed organisations), to assist with mission and outreach and to enable the church to implement its recent Vision Document.

For a full job description and application form e-mail connie.jeffery@talk21.com or call 01628 662500. Closing date for return of completed application forms is 10 August 2018 and interviews will take place approximately a week later.

It is an Occupational Requirement for the post holder to be a professing and practising Christian (Equality Act 2010).
